

the collection of the States claims on the western and eastern shores of this State.

The said resolution was then read a second, and by special order, a third time, and dissented from.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

Saturday March, 14, 1829.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill relating to the sinking funds of this State,

The bill incorporating the Annapolis and Potomac canal company,

The bill for the re-valuation of the real and personal property in Charles county.

The bill to authorise Samuel Peaco of the city of Annapolis, to have recorded a deed therein mentioned, and for other purposes,

The bill to make valid a certain deed of mortgage therein mentioned,

The bill to incorporate the Baltimore and Westminster rail road company, severally passed by the Senate yesterday,

The bill to confirm the title to property purchased at sales made by sheriffs, coroners constables or elisors,

The bill for the relief of John T. Wallace, of Washington county,

The bill to provide for the payment of balances due to the legal representatives of revolutionary officers and soldiers,

The bill to provide for the purchase and preservation of the fuel for the use of the State,

The bill to fix the times of holding the county Courts in the several counties comprehending the fourth judicial district of this State,

The bill entitled, an act to establish a public Library in each of the several counties of this State, and in the city of Baltimore,

And the bill entitled, an additional supplement to the act entitled, an act to authorise the Governor and Council of Maryland to appoint the inspectors of flour of this State, passed at December session 1825, chapter 174, severally rejected by the Senate yesterday,